

Changes in Lantmännen's Group Management Team when Elisabeth Wallin Mononen retires

Elisabeth Wallin Mononen, Senior Vice President & Head of HR & Communication has decided to retire after 18 years at Lantmännen. Consequently, Emma Stockhaus is appointed Senior Vice President & Head of HR and Frida Tydén is appointed Senior Vice President & Head of Communications & Marketing – both will be part of Lantmännen's Group Management Team.

"The fact that we are today perceived as a very attractive employer with good leadership and culture is proof that we have succeeded in our efforts within HR and Communications. It has been an amazing journey to make together with all colleagues over the years", says Elisabeth Wallin Mononen, Senior Vice President & Head of HR & Communication Lantmännen Group.

In connection with Elisabeth's retirement, an organisational change will be carried out, where Communication, that today constitutes a joint function together with HR, will instead make a function together with Marketing.

"I would like to extend a warm thank you to Elisabeth for the amazing job she has done for Lantmännen over the past eighteen years. She has built our HR function from the ground up in a very successful way. Today, Lantmännen is at the forefront in the field of HR and is an attractive employer – in large part thanks to Elisabeth's vision and leadership. I now look forward to continuing to develop HR and Communication & Marketing together with Emma & Frida," concludes Magnus Kagevik, Group President & CEO, Lantmännen.

Both Emma and Frida are internally made managerial appointments. The new organisation goes into effect on July 1, 2023.
