

Lantmännen's governance report receives award

Lantmännen has received an award from Svensk Kooperation for the best governance report in the category "Member voice and member value."

The award recognizes how Lantmännen incorporates its members' perspectives and ensures that they are reflected in the company's governance.

Svensk Kooperation's award citation:

"Lantmännen provides a well-structured account of how the company incorporates its members' perspectives and translates them into its operations. The governance report provides a detailed description of how dialogue, forums for engagement, and active member participation contribute to long-term member value and how members' views are reflected in the company's governance."

Lantmännen's cooperative model gives members an active role in the company's development. The governance report describes how member influence is organized and how the cooperative business model works in practice, making it clearer how members can influence the company over time.

About Lantmännen

About Lantmännen: Lantmännen is an agricultural cooperative and Northern Europe's leader in agriculture, bioenergy and food products. Owned by 17,000 Swedish farmers, Lantmännen has more than 10,000 employees, operations in over 20 countries and an annual turnover of SEK 60 billion. With grain at the heart of the operations, Lantmännen refines arable land resources to make farming thrive. Some of Lantmännen's best-known food brands are AXA, Kungsörnen, Scan, GoGreen, FINN CRISP, Schulstad and Vaasan. The company is founded on the knowledge and values acquired through generations of farmers. By engaging in research, development and operations throughout the value chain, Lantmännen takes responsibility from field to fork.
