

Lantmännen's Board proposes extra dividend of MSEK 750 to the members

Lantmännen's Board has proposed an extra dividend of MSEK 750 to the association's members, active Swedish farmers. The proposal will be considered at an Extraordinary General Meeting on 22 October 2025, and the dividend is conditional upon the completion of Lantmännen's divestment of Swecon.

The Board proposes an extraordinary dividend amounting to MSEK 750 in total. The dividend includes a refund and supplementary payment of MSEK 375 and a contribution dividend of MSEK 375.

Refunds and supplementary payment shall be calculated on members' purchases from Lantmännen Agriculture Sweden, Lantmännen Machinery and Swecon's

Swedish operations, as well as the members' sales of grain, oilseeds, pulses and forages to Lantmännen Agriculture Sweden. In both cases, during the period 1 October 2022 to 30 September 2025. Contribution dividend shall be based on the members' total contribution capital (paid-in and issued) as of 30 September 2025.

"The divestment of Swecon means that the Board can propose an extra dividend to the members, while maintaining the equity ratio at a good level. I know that the money is needed on the farms, and it is gratifying that Lantmännen can continue to contribute to the development of Swedish farming and an increased Swedish primary production. The extra dividend in combination with the ordinary dividend earlier this year means that Lantmännen will distribute a total of SEK 1,875 million to Swedish farmers in 2025," says Jan-Erik Hansson, Lantmännen's Chairman of the Board.

The proposal will be discussed at an Extraordinary General Meeting in Stockholm on October 22, 2025. The extra dividend is conditional upon the completion of the sale of 100 per cent of the shares in Swecon Anläggningsmaskiner AB, Entrack Sverige AB and Swecon Baumaschinen GmbH, and that Lantmännen has received the purchase consideration. If the sale of Swecon is not completed or the purchase consideration for the shares in Swecon is not received, no dividend will be paid.

The expected payment date of the dividend is on December 12, 2025, or no later than two weeks after Lantmännen has received the purchase consideration for the sale of Swecon.
