

Aspen builds an organization for the future and forms Aspen Group

As of March 1, 2024, Aspen and its subsidiaries forms Aspen Group that will be headed by Claes Alin, who will leave his role as CEO of Aspen Sweden after 16 years. Claes will be succeeded by Mats Uhrlander.

“Aspen has for a long time pursued a strong growth strategy that has served us well, and in order to continue the positive development, we are now forming the Aspen Group, which will continue to be one of three business areas within the Energy Sector, together with Lantmännen Biorefineries and Scandbio,” says Lars-Gunnar Edh, Head of Energy Sector, Lantmännen.

Aspen Group includes Aspen Sweden and the Agrol brand, Aspen US, Aspen and Marline brands in France, and Coryton in the UK with its subdivisions in Germany and South Korea. Aspen Group's management team will be based in new offices in Gårda, Gothenburg.

“In the specialty fuels sector, there is a growing demand for more sustainable products, which generates new and exciting opportunities. It is against this background and for our continued growth journey that we now are forming Aspen Group,” says Claes Alin, President of Aspen Group.

Incoming CEO Mats Uhrlander has been working within Aspen since 2008 and most recently operated as Head of Sales.

“It is with pride and joy that I take on the role as CEO of Aspen Sweden. I look forward to further developing the business together with our customers and my competent colleagues and employees,” says Mats Uhrlander, Managing Director, Aspen Sweden.

About Lantmännen

Lantmännen is an agricultural cooperative and Northern Europe's leader in agriculture, machinery, bioenergy and food products. We are owned by 18,000 Swedish farmers, have 10,000 employees, operations in some 20 countries and an annual turnover of SEK 65 billion. Based on grain, we refine the resources of arable land for viable agriculture. Some of our best-known food brands are AXA, Bonjour, Kungsörnen, GoGreen, GooH, FINN CRISP, Korvbrödsbagarn and Hatting. Our company is founded on knowledge and values that have been passed down for generations by our owners. Through research, development and operations throughout the value chain, we take responsibility together from field to fork. Read more on www.lantmannen.se
